ACADEMIC VACANCY

EEO# EN 7-14

- POSITIONS: Assistant or Associate Professor, dependent on qualifications.
- RESPONSIBILITIES: Tenure track faculty members are to be excellent teachers and to develop strong research programs. All faculty members are to actively participate in departmental governance, university and community service, and undergraduate student advising activities.
- QUALIFICATIONS: An earned Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering or closely related field, preferably with a B.S.M.E. from an ABET accredited program, is required for appointment. We seek outstanding applicants with expertise in any area of mechanical engineering. Related teaching, industry experience, and professional licensure are all highly desirable, as is an interest in student research activities.
- ADMINISTRATIVE UNIT: The Department of Mechanical Engineering is one of five engineering departments in the College of Engineering at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. The department has a very strong ABET accredited undergraduate program and a growing graduate program. There are currently fourteen mechanical engineering faculty positions. Annual research expenditures in the department exceed $1.3M a year, with primary focus areas in renewable energy, energy conservation, robotics, and biomedical devices. The College of Engineering at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette has over 2,700 students and offers degrees from the B.S. through Ph.D. in all engineering departments. The University is the second largest in the state with approximately 18,000 students. The Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools accredits the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. The Carnegie Foundation has designated UL- Lafayette as a "Research University with High Research Activity." The university is located in Lafayette, LA, in the heart of the Acadiana region of Louisiana. The region is highly technology and energy oriented. The community is open and friendly with a high quality lifestyle, a pleasant climate, and some of the best food in the world.
- SALARY: Commensurate with experience
- STARTING DATE: TBD
- APPLICATIONS: Send letter of application, resume, and a list of three references to Head MCHE Faculty Search Committee, P.O. Box 44170, Lafayette, LA 70504-4170. Applications will be considered until suitable candidate(s) found.
