To: UL Lafayette incoming faculty, graduate assistants, administrators, and staff

From: Jerry Luke LeBlanc JLL
Vice President for Administration and Finance

Re: Incoming mail

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette regulations prohibits employees from receiving personal mail in university departmental boxes. Any and all such mail that is deemed to be of personal nature will be returned to the sender as undeliverable.

The university operates a contracted post office on campus for exclusive use of university departments, employees and students. Employees who wish to receive personal mail on campus, may rent a box for this purpose.
