Vacancy Announcement

POSITION: Tenure Track Assistant Professor, Special Education, EEO# ED 3-15

RESPONSIBILITIES: We are seeking candidates with robust academic records who will be active educators in special education, serve as a mentor to students, work with colleagues to assess and improve curricula, conduct research and/or creative works in respective area of specialization, and demonstrate institutional citizenship through active engagement at the department, college, university, community, and professional levels. The candidate will be responsible for teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in special education. Additional duties include: advising students in the College of Education; supervising student teachers; developing and implementing projects associated with the candidate’s research agenda; and engaging in scholarly activities and other professional activities as deemed necessary by the department, college, or university.

QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must have earned a terminal degree in Special Education or Curriculum & Instruction with an emphasis in Special Education (ABD will be considered if degree is in hand prior to start date). Successful candidates must be committed to working effectively with diverse student populations. Applicants are expected to describe their commitment to fostering a diverse educational environment through their research, teaching, and/or service activities. Candidates must have at least three years K-12 classroom experience as a certified teacher. Prior experience teaching pre-service teachers at the undergraduate or graduate level is desirable. Candidates should have or show potential to engage in scholarly inquiry (publications, externally funded projects, etc.), and actively participate in premiere professional organizations (AERA, CEC). Preference will be given to candidates who: 1) demonstrate an ability to teach a variety of courses in special education including those related to teaching children with mild/moderate disabilities; 2) have led or contributed to NCATE/CAEP, CEC, NAEYC, or ACEI accreditation reports; 3) have taught online or hybrid courses (or who have formal training in teaching online or hybrid courses).

UNIVERSITY AND COMMUNITY: The mission of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette is to offer exceptional education informed by diverse worldviews striving to develop innovative leaders who advance knowledge. The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges accredits the University, which offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in the arts, sciences, and professional programs. The University is a public research university with high research activity, an enrollment of over 18,000 students and 800 faculty members. UL Lafayette is the largest of nine universities in the University of Louisiana System.
