

ACADEMIC VACANCY

Instructor – Kinesiology-Exercise Science (ED8-16)

POSITION:

The School of Kinesiology within the College of Education at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette (UL Lafayette) is seeking applications for an Instructor of Kinesiology. This is a non-tenure track nine-month position with the possibility of summer employment.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate for this position will be expected to teach undergraduate courses in one or more of the following areas: exercise science or sport management. Additionally, the instructor will be responsible for advising students during the fall and spring semesters. The candidate will also demonstrate ongoing intellectual competence and professional development. Responsibilities include service to the program, department, and university.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. A minimum of a MA Ed, MS Ed, M.Ed, MS in Kinesiology or MS in Physical Education required. Preferred qualifications include a Doctorate degree and experience teaching at the University level.

ADMINISTRATIVE UNIT:

UL Lafayette is the largest of eight publicly supported universities in the University of Louisiana system with an enrollment of over 17,000 students. The School of Kinesiology has over 1,100 majors enrolled in Exercise Science, Athletic Training, Physical Education, Sport Management or Health Promotion and Wellness. Graduate programs in the School of Kinesiology result in a M.S. in Kinesiology with concentrations in Exercise and Sport Science or Health Promotion, Recreation and Sport Management. The facilities include a 1500+ sq ft human performance laboratory with multiple metabolic carts, bod pod, high speed camera motion capture system and force plate systems and an exercise metabolism lab that contains equipment necessary for storage and analysis of biomarkers. In addition, a motor development lab is available with one-way glass and equipment available for working with children and students.

SALARY:

Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

STARTING DATE:

August 2017

APPLICATIONS:

Applications must be submitted electronically and should include: minimum of three references, a cover letter describing your qualifications for the position, and a complete curriculum vitae. Review of all materials will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled.
