ACADEMIC VACANCY

POSITION:

EEO: SC 19-16

Laboratory Assistant in Biology-Instructor/Instrument Coordinator/Data Analyst

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful applicant will manage departmental instrumentation, including supervision and instruction of users. The successful hire will also manage the herbarium and take part in instruction. Teaching assignments could involve a variety of introductory biology courses, and specialized advanced courses associated with instrumentation use, and bioinformatics applications. We are seeking candidates with a robust academic record, who will be active educators, serve as a mentor to students, work with colleagues in a collaborative fashion to improve research and instruction and demonstrate institutional citizenship through active engagement at the department, college, university, community, and professional levels. The candidate should demonstrate ongoing intellectual competence and professional development.

QUALIFICATIONS:

The applicant must have a MS in Biology or a related field, with preference given to holders of a Ph.D.

Successful candidates must be committed to working effectively with diverse student populations. Applicants are expected to describe their commitment to fostering a diverse educational environment through their research, teaching, and/or service activities.
