Dean of College of the Arts

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette seeks a visionary leader to serve as Dean of College of the Arts to work with faculty, administrative staff, and students to ensure that the College of the Arts achieves academic excellence and fulfills the mission of the College. The Dean reports to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and represents Arts on the academic leadership team of the University. The Dean will lead a vibrant college that has seen significant growth over the last decade and is a part of a university that has recently been recognized as a Carnegie R1 institution.

The successful candidate will create a community environment that will support the development, implementation, growth, and expansion of disciplinary and interdisciplinary opportunities in the arts. Responsibilities will include engagement in strategic initiatives and private fundraising; conducting operational planning, review, and enhancement; supervising promotion and tenure processes; and leading college-wide efforts of faculty and staff in student recruitment, retention. Demonstrated success in administrative leadership, managing budgets, management, operation, accreditation, and continuous improvement of educational, performance, and research programs, as well as fundraising and advancement activities, is expected. The successful candidate will have demonstrated leadership history in fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion. The Dean will work with faculty in establishing the vision, mission, and values that further the advancement of the programs within the college.
